Third-grade reading guarantee – retention	Raises the "cut" score by applying the retention requirements to students who do not receive at least a "proficient" score on the third grade reading achievement assessment. Maintains current law requiring a district or community school to either	Retains the current practice of applying the retention requirements to students who score in the "limited" range. Beginning with students entering third grade in the 2013-2014 school year,	Raises the "cut" score, effective with the 2012-2013 school year, by applying the retention requirements to students who do not receive at least a "proficient" score. The new score would apply to the current retention requirements, which are retained for the 2012-2013 school year. Same as Senate, but raises the score for applying the retention	Requires the State Board of Education to determine the "cut" score, progressively adjusting it upwards until the retention requirements apply to students who do not receive at least a "proficient" score. Prohibits the State Board from designating a level lower than "limited." Not later than December 31, 2013, requires the State Board to submit to the General Assembly recommended changes to the scoring ranges of the state achievement assessments necessary for the successful implementation of the common core curriculum and assessments in the 2014-2015 school year. Same as Senate, but the State Board sets the "cut" score (see above).

	Maintains current law requiring school districts and community schools to provide intervention services to each student reading below grade level, but replaces the requirement that the services include an intensive, systematic instruction in phonics with a requirement that the services include instruction targeted at the student's identified reading deficiencies. Requires the district or community school to develop a reading improvement and monitoring plan for each student identified as reading below grade level. The plan must (1) identify the student's specific reading deficiencies, (2) describe the additional instructional services and support that will be provided to remediate the student's deficiencies, (3) include opportunities for parental involvement in those services and support, (4) specify a process for monitoring the student's receipt of the services and support, and (5) state that the student may be retained in third grade for failure to pass the third-grade reading achievement assessment.	the limited range on the third grade reading achievement assessment. Specifies that intensive reading instruction must be provided immediately following identification of a reading deficiency, and must include (1) "intensive, explicit, and systematic instruction," (2) research-based reading strategies that have been shown to be successful in improving reading among low-performing readers, and (3) instruction targeted at the student's identified reading deficiencies. Same as Introduced, plus requires each plan to provide a reading curriculum during regular school hours that (a) provides skill development in phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary, and comprehension, (b) provides scientifically based and reliable assessment, and (c) provides initial and ongoing analysis of each student's reading progress.	Same as Senate, except omits the statement that the instruction must include "intensive, explicit, and systematic instruction." Same as Senate, but omits the stipulation that the curriculum "provide skill development in phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary, and comprehension."	Same as Senate. Same as first Reported by H. Legislative recommendations regarding reading readiness	No provision.	Requires the Department of Education and the Governor's Director of 21st Century Education, in consultation with the State Board of Education, the Early Childhood Advisory Council, the Early Education and Development Committee, and education stakeholders, by March 31, 2013, to develop and submit to the Governor and the General Assembly legislative recommendations regarding reading readiness for individuals from birth through the third grade. (Section 733.30)	Requires the State Board of Education and the Early Childhood Advisory Council jointly to develop legislative recommendations on the state's policies on literacy education of children from birth to third grade. The joint recommendations are due to the Governor and members of the General Assembly, namely members of the General Assembly's Children's Caucus, not later than February 28, 2013. (Section 733.30)	Same as first Reported by H. Education, but (1) requires the State Board and the Council to consult with the Governor's office of 21st Century Education and (2) omits the reference to the Children's Caucus.
Promotion and retention policy	Requires community schools to comply with an existing law requiring each school district to adopt a promotion and retention policy that prohibits the promotion of a student who has been truant for more than 10% of the school year and has failed at least two of the required subjects, unless the principal and teachers in the failed subjects agree that the	Same as Introduced. Community school sponsor rankings and restrictions on sponsoring additional schools	Requires the Department of Education to create separate rankings, one for sponsors of conversion community schools and one for sponsors of start-up community schools, for the purpose of the annual ranking of community school sponsors by their composite performance index scores. (Current law requires one ranking that comprises sponsors of both types of schools.)	Same as Introduced, but changes the criteria for applying the prohibition against a community school sponsor sponsoring additional schools, by replacing the trigger of the sponsor ranking in the lowest 20% on an annual ranking of sponsors by their composite performance index scores with a trigger of the sponsor receiving a rating of academic watch or academic emergency using the same performance metrics (state performance indicators, performance index score, adequate yearly progress, and the value-added progress dimension) and the same rating system as used for school districts, by evaluating the performance of all of the sponsor's conversion or start-up schools	Reinstates both (1) the current law requiring a single pool of all sponsors, rather than separate pools for sponsors of conversion schools and for sponsors of start-up schools, and (2) the current law prescribing a sponsor ranking in the lowest 20% on an annual ranking of sponsors by their composite performance index scores as the trigger for prohibiting it from sponsoring additional schools.
